

BINGO

Your pet licks themselves in the background of a video call.	Your coworker sounds like an underwater robot on a conference call.	Your roomie/ significant other makes a "cameo" on a video call.	You have forgotten what day of the week it is.	Zoom crashes.
The IM system crashes.	Laundry break!	Extra hour of sleep!	"Oh no, you froze!"	Accidentally work until 10pm.
Have a snack... again.	Touch your face, freak out for a second, then remember you haven't left the house in a week.	Free No Pants Required	Time no longer exists.	"Maybe I'll try knitting?"
Unnecessary online shopping.	Another lunch order on delivery.	"Can you hear me now?"	Get distracted by your own face in the camera.	You get a call from a coworker/ client while on another video call.
Tiger King plays in the background while writing emails.	The number of browser tabs open is getting out of hand.	"Can you repeat that? You cut out."	Random mismatched leftovers for lunch.	Refresh the Amazon page from Charmin to see when TP will be back in stock.
