

B I N G O

Laundry break!	Get distracted by your own face in the camera.	"When things get back to normal we'll..."	You wake up too late to eat breakfast	Go a full day without looking at COVID-related news
Time no longer exists.	Your coworker sounds like an underwater robot on a conference call.	Run out of alcohol.	You receive multiple video calls simultaneously	Unnecessary online shopping
Run out of snacks and debate if a grocery run is worth the risk	Extra hour of sleep!	Free No Pants Required (What about shorts?)	Random mismatched leftovers for lunch.	Someone accidentally starts talking while on mute
Someone's dog barks during a conference call	Lose track of how much caffeine you've consumed	Pet harasses you during a conference call	You forgot you're on video and do something embarrassing	Accidentally work for 10+ hours
You wear real clothes.	Your roomie/significant other makes a "cameo" on a video call.	"Oh no, you froze!"	You have forgotten what day of the week it is.	Another lunch order on delivery.
